Special Education — Helping Students Succeed

Learn the basics about:

- ◆ The special education process (evaluation, Individualized Education Plans, students' rights)
- ◆ How complex the special education process can be
- ◆ The laws and rules that impact children with a mental illness or in the Emotional or Behavioral Disability (EBD) category, such as 504 Plans, the use of seclusion and restraints, and discipline policies.

You will leave with a better understanding of the role you play as a parent on the special education team and how to advocate for your child to help them succeed in school.

This is a two-hour class and is for parents or caregivers of children.
